Neptun I Statuary and indoor fountains

- Neptun pumps are flat priming and have a very low noise level due to their quiet operation. Starting with the Neptun 2100 the pumps are completely capable of withstanding winter conditions so that they can stay in the water throughout the entire year.
- The more powerful pumps starting with the Neptun 2100 model have a removable pedestal to enable installation even where space is extremely limited. In addition these pumps also have a stainless steel filter basket which guarantees the long service life.
- The Neptun range, starting with the 180 model, can be set-up outside of the water; below water level. Regardless of the application, all pumps can be controlled individually and conveniently.
